Paul,

Please allow me to highlight a couple of things you have said

"We CANNOT HAVE any miscues, mistakes or fuckups."

Well put. CB4 is watching closely. The Police are watching closely. The FDNY is watching closely.

"Give me 2 weeks notice and we apply for the license and can do the event right. "

What is wrong with this logic? How is it that this self defeating destructive behavior of booking/promoting events that are illegal continues?

This is not business. It is bat shit crazy.

It has come to my attention that this weekend we have an event with 50cent. WHY? As the appointment head of the group I'm saying cancel it. Not sure who is booking or promoting it but get rid of it.. This will attract MAJOR ATTENTION to the venue.

For all the partners I have the lease.. Give me a couple of days for review and then we can get it signed.. Immediately AFTER THAT WE DO THE OPERATING AGREEMENT! We CANNOT HAVE any miscues, mistakes or fuckups. We absolutely have to go to community board and if they know we have history before opening that will deny us!

Get rid of this event and nothing goes on this weekend. IF ANYONE WANTS TO DO AN EVENT JUST TELL ME. Give me 2 weeks notice and we apply for the license and can do the event right. This waiting of surprise last minute stuff cannot and will not happen..I need an immediate response from the principals.

Maureen,

Can you please give some details about this baseless accusation that you are making? And, even in some fantasy world in which this was actually taking place why it is relevant that it is, or isn't being booked by Paul's competition? More importantly, what in the world does this have to do with a potential booking of 50cent?

Let's keep it real.

Maureen,

So, to be clear, you have absolutely no idea what is going on in "Treadwell"?
