The email chain below shows that Ian Reisner & team conducted a professional due diligence process requiring Maureen Lupo to document her capacity to provide security for the lease et al. It also evidences Lupo's reluctance to engage and insisting that the lease was already "hers".

Baby.

Stop being suspect stop thinking we have anything up our sleeves except to help you. Stop being an alarmist.

We are here to help you
you are here to help me and we are here to help you because you're helping me

So take a chill pill take a Valium and relax and follow our lead. We're not trying to hurt you. We're trying to help you.

Of course we need to know anything and everything about your investor because that is the money that pays the cooling tower and that is the money that gives me $1 million "key-money"

This $1.5 million is basically in lieu of your security deposit.
Instead of security deposit we're taking $1.5 million key money

All is good. We must have reference to the $2 million investment because that's what makes this deal work!!!!!!

In terms of using our Hotel employees to help your club I think it's OK so long as that we build back for the costs.

Actually, there's an economies of a scale of sharing employees as long as we bill back correctly

That's how we did in 2011 and 2012 with the out hotel and XL night club.

I want the urban resort to take care of property management and maintenance and repairs and finance and accounting and human resources and those expenses are paid by "URBAN RESORT" and the "Entertainment Complex" leasee (you) will be responsible for your proportionate share of those expenses.

Magnus, this must be added to the terms sheet and contract!!!!

It's a win-win because we get to divide these expensive fix costs amongst 2 business units. And when the FNB operator is up and running we will do the same with them and then we divide these expenses among 3 business units. .

Thank you,

Micheal my investor is showing up but my investor isn't part of my lease. My money and my investment ISNT anyone business
My lease term and the club is already legally a separate entity it has its own EIN number.

Stop counting Pennie's. I have my own relationship with Ian.

Give me my lease my term sheet is different

I can do a term sheet that I offer to pay for the cooling tower that isn't my responsibility it's Ian's as a landlord. But he needs the help.

The hotel needs help so I brought in marketing /chefs / promotions/stores.

AT NO COST TO IAN OR THE HOTEL MICHEAL.

NOT A PENNY OR ANY HELP FROM HOTEL.

TERM SHEET FOR MY HELP AND BY THE WAY YOUR WELCOME AND MY LEASE PERIOD.

Maureen, as you know, we have a pending offer from Kekoon, and they're offering $50K per month.

Ian wants to go with your $25K per month offer because you're coming with an investor, so obviously, this needs to be spelled out in the lease. If your investor doesn't show up, then what? Then we need to find someone to pay the market rent or we risk going under.

You are a potential tenant, and your best interest might not be aligned with Ian's. That's okay because it's business, and you are a great businesswoman. But this is exactly why we need to have a good lease in place.

There is also a potential conflict of interest because you are trying use the hotel employees to build your club business. Jeremy informed me that Superb Maids spent over $6K to clean the club premises. We also can't have any hotel employees working for you at this time because we're at a crucial time implementing a new PMS, and I'm already paying some workers overtime. You have to find your people! The hotel business has to conserve cash because July and August were extremely slow, and there's no way I'll be paying for any club expenses.

I highly respect you as a business owner and a friend. And you already know that good agreements make good friends. Please discuss your terms with Magnus, who has a lot of experience in this. We can also jump on a call if needed.

Thank you,
Michal.

Micheal give me my lease. Stop worrying about my investors it's none of your business about my money

I was being nice to give money to the resort. Be clear I don't owe you money I don't owe you a cooling tower or money for your account.

Stop focusing on my investors and my business

What if the lease gets signed and there is no investment? You are getting the lease at very favorable terms which is connected with the contribution that will be made to the property. Will this in any way be problematic?

Otherwise, Ian should know that there might be no investment.

Thanks,
Michal.
